FIRES CLOTHES

Pather, Mother and Maid Burned Trying to Save Life of Loretta Murphy.

Seventeen - Year - Old Victim Finally Saved From Death by Heroic Servant.

father, Thomas Murphy, and her nie Kamp, a maid, was also burned.

fifty-four years old. His wife and daughter have conducted a smart dress making establishment in the three story brownstone house. The daughter years old, and she and her mother as clientele of society folk.

The family had just finished break fast, the dining-room being in the basement, Mrs. Murphy and the maid. An gown on which they were workha and Mr. Murphy and Loretta were left Ran, Spreading Fire to House.

shrick and the girl dashed, mad with fright and with her skirt about, "Save me' save me" she cried "I'm burning up!" and sped on through the

her. He called to her to stop, but she ran as fast as she could, with him after her thin fabric immediately flured up like until I have mainted it. Then it distinder. The father saw this, but said appears. afterward he didn't care if the house Dream Picture Drew burned, he was trying to reach his the father also caught up with her and where, and I had to go to his house to giver. With head thrown back she de threw himself upon her. His clothing paint it. ignited and the four were in a second By this time the girl's clothing had ion, hallucination, been burned and torn almost entirely choose to call it, would come her and, still screaming wildly, se story and threw herself in an agony of appeared in the open door of my barn, hysteria upon her bed. The father and mother were too weak to follow her, but already flung herself upon it and the gests that he enjoys life as fully as joicing that his subsidiary position in coverlet was ablaze Annie Kamp selzed Holbein or Rubens might. maid poured water on the bed, and went downstairs to the other victims.

Maid Saved Her Life.

nothing else in the half caught fire not be lost. Certain people may be re "Why not?" the artist replied. "The entered the house and Policeman Waitsenberg and transmitters of wireless ancients all spoke of Mother Nature." away and her face terribly scarred Durer?" I suggested. Vincent's Hospital.

The matter The mother and the maid. Annie Kamp, were not so badly injured.

MANICURIST FINDS MEN 'TLO FORWALD'

Vi.hi, an Girl Takes Iodine Bocause Barber Shop Patrons Annoy Her.

No. 441 Manhattan avenue, because her brother-in-law, a policeman attached to the Wort Military She was a grisoner, however, in the gatte thrill with pride when she reads tarlem Court to-day, and explained by p. ... milk. His promptness saved her life.

Harlem Court to-day, and explained to Magi-trate Breen the reason for her rash vision series, which expresses an enact, it was because New York men tirely new conception of the casting were too forward, she said. Policeman out of Adam and Eve from Paradise. -Denard Golding, the brother-in-law, in explanation of this picture the artist elucidated her defense. She lived out in Michigan," said had written:

Golding, "and learned the manicuring business there. When she came to make her home with us she secured a place in a barber shop.

"Every night she came home and cried, saying that she had been insulted by this or that cust mer. I think it worked on her so that she temporarily became insane."

Genevieve is a large, well-developed young woman. The Magistrate pare ed her in the custody of her brother-in-

GIRL IN FLAMES Haunted for Years by Dream Pictures Like Dore's Works, Malcolm Fraser Was Compelled to Put Them on Canvas

OF RESCUERS Vivid Compositions Would Always Intrude Themselves as Shadow Eclipsing Subject Upon Which Painter Was Engaged.

SETS A CURTAIN ABLAZE. ONE SHOWING EVE DEFIANT MAY PLEASE SUFFRAGISTS.

> To the Artist It Suggests a Time When Nature Will Eliminate Man as Unessential.

> > By Nixola Greeley-Smith.

"Whither is fled the visionary gleam,

Many men besides Wordsworth ive asked themselves this ques-

Malcolm Froser, noted American rtist, has answered it in a series of ream paintings now on exhibition it the Clausen Galleries, at No. 7 ast Thirty-fifth street.

For Mr. Fraser believes that the welve pictures there shown are but he transcript made by his hand of isions which appeared to him in road daylight, and refused to disppear till he had given them exression on his canvas.

Yesterday I saw these remarkable pictures, which have been likened

"Adam cowers on his knees before the "Nature can do without man-will ul-

MARRIAGE

SPECULATION

DEATH

RESTLESSNESS ETC.

These are but a few of the many causes that make men sacrifice cheir well established and profit paying business enterprises for "what they can get out of them in a hurry."

Investment opportunities of this attractive kind are arising every day, as you will see if you glance through the "Business Opportunity" advertisements printed

FAR CHEAPER TO BUY A STORE, MARKET, HOTEL, CAFE.

STANCES THAN TO START

BRAND NEW ENTERPRISE OF

UNDER THESE CIRCUM-

n this morning's World.

DIVORCE

TIMIDITY

timately do without him." Mr. Fraser to the work of Gustave Dore, and Mr. Fraser told me just how and what and where each had appeared to him.

"I have been seeing pictures such as these for years," he said, "but room and up the stairs, her father after until recently I disregarded them. Quite often they would appear to me while I was painting a portrait, coming between me and the sitter, and her dress burning tore and more and clamoring for expression. Sometimes I see them on my studio Running through the hill she brushed wall connationed in the house of a friend. Generally I see the side Running through the half she brushed wall, sometimes in the home of a friend. Ger ally I see the picture of his co

"One of these appeared to me in the Death Angel. He accepts his doom, and the maid, hearing the screams and office of a physician near my home on continued Mr. Frager in a struggle, the flames apparently gaining greater headway all the time.

By this time the gril's clothing had to head to he choose to call it, would come back as life that shall defy and conquer you."

"Once, however, I lost one that first Thinks Nature May Yet Eliminate the maid was in the room almost as pictures?" I inquired, surveying the timid woman displays amazing courage Seer of Visions with amazement. For in the presence of death." Mr. Fraser does not look like a vision- "But man?" I protested, feeling that being a short, thick-set man I should say a good screamed, but the half-mad girl had in the forties, whose appearance sug- because he was down, but inwardly rethe scheme of nature had been recoga blanket and literally smothered the blaze in the girl's clothing. Then the sages.

lownstairs to the other victims.

"I don't know that I can explain to answered. "Recent experiments in Califur, Murphy was badly burned about you." replied Mr. Fraser. "Being a fornia have demonstrated that life can downstairs to the other victims.

Mr. Murphy was badly burned about the head and body. His bair, mustache and eyebrows were singed off and be and eyebrows were singed off and be was grounding with pain. His wife was grounding with pain. His wife was grounding with pain. His wife was grounding with fight. The lace curtains were burned away, and strangely enough noting else in the hall caught fire burned away, and strangely enough. Negations, hearing tig screams, entered the house and Paleeman wait.

"I don't know that I can explain to you." replied Mr. Fraser. "Being a mawered. "Recent experiments in California have demonstrated that life can be produced by the female alone. She is the life-giver."

"I don't know that I can explain to you." replied Mr. Fraser. "Being a mayered. "Recent experiments in California have demonstrated that life can be produced by the female alone. She is the life-giver."

"Then man must ultimately become extinct?" I questioned. "For nature extinct?" I questioned the hold and threatened to kill.

Thought is an energy, and energy can not be lost. Certain people may be received the weapon and fired it in self-protection.

The Paterson police promise to make I for Victim of "Plot".

The Paterson police promise to make I for Victim of "Plot".

The Paterson police promise to make I for Victim of "Plot".

The Paterson police promise to make I for Victim of "Plot".

The Paterson police promise to make I for Victim of "Plot".

The Paterson police promise to make I for Victim of "Plot".

The Paterson police promise to make I for Victim Dr messages to the world from others."

to others who, by expression, give them to the world. I mean that the rose that blooms in the desert does not waste its sweetness any more than the one that mingles the fragrance with the incense rising to the altar."

"The Serpent binding the first new towns telling of many other young women he has led to the altar."

Furthermore, there are several big diamond robberies committed in Buffalo and Rochester that Chief of Police Binding and Rochester that Chief and Rochester that C

"I notice that all these pictures are religious in feeling; that they deal with hib i al subjects," I said. "Are you religious"

"No," replied Mr. Fraser. "I am a lover of nature. But the Bible is the A half ounce of tincture of iodine did only complete history of man we have.

We have to accept it—assuming of not kill Miss Genevieve D. Jones, a pretty young manicurist, who lives at graphic to accept it—assuming, of course, that any history of man is des'rable," he added with a cynicism alt laughed, and so did Mr. Fraser. the West Thirty-seventh street station.

Then he said something which will make even the most militant suffra-

A New View of Mother Eve.

"Adam, in whom the Spirit has not yet awakened, crushed, begs for mercy. In Eve the Spirit has spoken. 'The seed of the woman shall bruise the Serpent's head." And so she faces her punisament, them and Paradise stands the Angel of Death, serrowfully carrying out his mission, but able to place upon his sword the rainhow colors of Hope and Promise.

"For God So Loved the World."

t was an utter failure." "All women feel that," continued Mr. Fraser. "That is why even the most dimid woman displays a very the woman displays a very the most dimid woman displays a very the woman displays a very the most dimid woman displays a very the woman display SEVERAL WIVES, messages to the world from others."

Glover, from St. Vincent's Hospital. The daughter was unconscious rom pain and lay on the charred bett, soft one. Her hair was almost burned away and her face terriby scatted.

The daughter was unconscious rom pain and lay on the charred bett, soft one. Her hair was almost burned away and her face terriby scatted.

Eve's Serpent Symbolical of Passion. It very interesting for Charles D. Alternative the other vision pictures. Then we passed to the one passed to the world some message from Velasquez or Albrecht burner?" I suggested.

Eve's Serpent Symbolical of Passion. It very interesting for Charles D. Alternative passed to the world from others."

Then we passed to the world from others."

Then we passed to the consideration of the very interesting for Charles D. Alternative passed to the consideration of the other vision pictures. Among these the "plot" to murder him and the law of the charles of the other vision pictures. Among these the "plot" to murder him and the law of the other vision pictures. Among these the "plot" to murder him and the other vision pictures. Among these the "plot" to murder him and the other vision pictures. Among these the "plot" to murder him and the other vision pictures. Durer?" I suggested.

"Just as likely some message from Bill Jones of Kalamazoo," replied Mr. Fraser laconically. "I have a theory that there are no worthless lives: that there who think beautiful thoughts. It is one of the Snift within her the statement of a pretty young woman from Tottenville that she married him before he married Mrs. Edward Hurd.

Unconscious of the Snift within her the statement of a pretty young woman from Tottenville that she married him before he married Mrs. Edward Hurd. people who think beautiful thoughts. Unconscious of the Spirit within her who also, it seems, is much married no matter how narrow and circumscribed their existence, send them on to others who, by expression, give

"The Serpent binding the first new towns telling of many other young."

> Painter Net Religious: His Dream
>
> as those of Dore, and all, Mr. Fraser
>
> Fictures Are.
>
> says, are "such stuff as dreams are made of."
>
> we usually expect the doctor to put us on some kind of penance and give us bitter medicines.
>
> A Penn doctor brought a patient zilian, in which he alleged that Mrs. Hurd and Mrs. Hurd's mother took A Penn, doctor broug retreating into the background something entirely different and the as other features of his career come out results are truly interesting.

> > Hurds Held by Police.

Cummings, Mrs. Hurd's mother, are al- mc a small package, saying he had leged to have attempted to kill Alvan- found something for me to eat at dres on Saturday night, were arraigned last. to-day before Justice Carroll in the "He said it was a food called Paterson Police Court. Both were held Grape-Nuts and, even as its golden as witnesses and turned over to the color might suggest, it was worth its police for third degree treatment. Mrs. weight in gold. I was sick and tired Cummings, who was arrested with them trying one thing after another to no in this city last night, is still awaiting avail, but at last consented & try aded that she might have married him Nuts wille under a hypnotic spell. Often. she said, sie felt herself go into a and in a month's time my former

Ada and Yonkers. He had fortune "There's a reasor." Name given ttacked Hurd with a pistol, she said.

Hundred and Fifty-third street by Detectives Lord and Keppler, of Paterson, working with New York and Central Omce police. They said they left Paterson after the shooting and volked fourteen miles to catch a train to New York. Mrs. Cummings was locked up here for the night, and Hurd and his wife accompanied the detectives to Paterson.

In the jail Alvandros received an unvectome visitor in the person of his real wife, whom he married Sept. 29, 1836, at the Methodist Episcopal Church, on Eighty-sixth street, the Rev. Albert D. Vale performing the ceremony. Rev. Albert D. care been living at ceremony.

Mrs. Alvandros has been living at Tottenville since her marriage.

"My husband is a Brazilian," she said.

"and has followed many occupations, principally clairvancy and palmistry. He has been known by many names. He was a members of the Chicago Law School, but did not get a diploma until

THE DOCTOR'S GIFT. Food Worth Its Weight in Gold.

We usually expect the doctor to A Penn, doctor brought a nationt into prominence. The police say now "Two years ago," writes this pathat they can understand his reluctance tient, "I was a frequent victim of acute indigestion and biliousness, being allowed to eat very few things. Mr. and Mrs. Hard, who with Mrs. One day our family doctor brought extradition.

Mrs. Hurd declared under the third "Well! it surpassed my doctor's degree prope this afternoon that she fondest anticipation, and every day and no conscious knowledge of ever since then I have blessed the good paying married the Brazillan. "I noticed improvement at once hypnotic transe while with Alvandros, spells of indigestion had disappeared, Fortune Tellor, She Says. In two months I felt like a new "He was never a lawyer," she said, man. My brain was much clearer only a farcare tester. I never lived and keener, my body took on the sta him as his wife but travelled vitality of youth, and this condition Ala and Yonkers. He had fortune by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in The young woman also denied the ai- pkgs.

MASHER FINED $10; FACE "TWITCHED" Mayer Didn't Intend to Annoy Mrs. Casey; Court Thinks

He Did. One Hundred and Fifth street, Man-City Police Court to-day upon being found guilty of having annoyed Mrs. Mary Casey, an attractive young woman, while on a Thirty-fourth street ferry-boat last week.

"This man persisted in making faces and sticking his tonside at me all the way across the river, raid Mis. Casey.
"and he rubbed against me and tried to hold me near him. My live-ve-year-old son was with me, but his did not seen to feaze he masher."

JEWELLERS BANKRUPT AFTER FINANCIAL PANIC.

CHICAGO, March 10.—Shourds, Ad-cock, Teufel Co., a large lewelry firm, was declared bankrupt yesterday and Judge Landis appointed the American

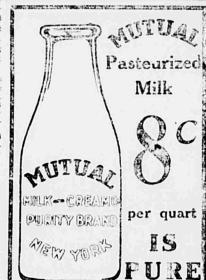

3 Days' Free Trial -- Money Pack If Not Satisfied will cure your indigestion

will relieve your theumailsau VIBRATOR WILL CUTE YOUR DEGINESS The HOME VIBRATOR

BPECIAL S1 00 Mailed prepaid for PRICE 01 00 One Dollar. It is always ready, and will last for years.

THE HOME VIB ATOR CO.,

It is superior in quality, rich and wholesome. A Postal or 'phone call will bring our rer

MUTUAL Milk & Cream Co. MAIN OFFICES: 214-224 EAST 22nd STREET,

Tel. 6346-Gramercy

Light—but nutritious Plain-yet delicious Eat all you want of them Eat all you can of them Uneeda Biscuit moisture proof packages.

Neper sold in bulk.

NATIONAL BISCUIT

COMPANY